FOR THANKSGIVING

DINNER WILL COST NEARLY TWICE AS MUCH THIS YEAR.

FOR FAMILY OF FIVE, $8

Turkey Drumsticks and Plum Pudding "Dreams" Will Make a Hole in Weekly Income.

Turkeys were always distinguished for their gobbling qualities, but this year they will gobble up a good fat chunk of the family income if they get an opportunity to be present on the Thanksgiving festal board. In fact, the whole Thanksgiving dinner is going to make the housewife feel the smallness of the penny and the inadequacy of the dollar in supplying the trukey day feast for the family.

According to figures compiled by an expert on family menus, your Thanksgiving dinner is going to cost you twice as much as it did last year. To begin with, turkey, without which no holiday dinner is complete, is showing a great advance in price, and from there you can take every article down to a cigar for father and you will find that you are paying more than you did last year for things identical in quality and quantity.

Experts on the family dinner question estimate that the Thanksgiving dinner for a family of five cost approximately $3.50 last year. This year you cannot give your family of five the delights of the "white meat," the "dark meat," or the plum pudding dreams for less than $7—that is, unless you do away with some of the luxuries that have characterized the Thanksgiving dinner from time immemorial.

Here is the menu for the 1916 model Thanksgiving dinner from soup to nuts:

7-pound turkey at 30c a pound	2.10

FEAR FOR AMERICANS LIVES

If Villa Takes Chihuahua the Authorities Think That a Foreign Massacre Will Be in Order.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

San Antonio, Nov. 28.—That Chihuahua has fallen into Villa's hands is confirmed officially in the reports received from Funston. The reports say that Trevino is in flight toward Sauz. Funston didn't disclose the source of his information, but it is believed to be correct.

El Paso, Nov. 28.—Grave fears for the safety of six Americans and other foreigners were entertained here today as the hours passed without word from Chihuahua City. If Villa captured the capital, as was vaguely rumored here tonight, it is thought that his first action would be the massacre of the foreigners.

Chihuahua Not Captured.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The war department announced the receipt through diplomatic channels of the information that Chihuahua had not fallen in the hands of Villa.

SCOVILLE CONVERTS MAYOR

Evangelist Causes Former Ally of the "Wets" to Line Up at Meeting in Iowa.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Ottumwa, Ia.—"Old Tom" Phillips, "wet" mayor of this city for several terms, ousted from that office by Attorney General Cosson for intoxication in public, under whose administration Ottumwa was wide open, and who was one of the chief opponents of Billy Sunday in the fight made against that evangelist in his Ottumwa revival several years ago, has hit the "sawdust trail."

When Charles Reign Scoville, who is somewhat like Sunday in his method of preaching the gospel, made his first call for converts at a big men's meeting here, Mr. Phillips was one of the first down the trail. When the two thousand people that filled the tabernacle saw him go, they staged a demonstration that rivaled the torchlight, roman candle celebration staged for the former mayor when he was last elected to the mayor's chair.

Mr. Phillips has been attending the Scoville meetings since the evangelist's coming several days ago.

NEW YORK BOYCOTTS EGGS

Dealers Join With Consumers in Plan to Defeat Speculators—Other Plans to Follow.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

New York, Nov. 28.—New York voiced its protest against the high cost of living yesterday by putting a boycott on eggs. Meat, poultry and other staples will also be boycotted if the egg boycott is successful. The movement has the endorsement of the National Housewives' League, of John J. Dillon, commissioner of foods and markets, and of Joseph Herrigen, commissioner of weights and measurer, representing the city. Wholesale and retail dealers have given the proposal their approval as the only practical method of defeating the speculators.

This embargo is said to be the first of its kind which has had the support of the dealers. A meeting of the presidents of all branches of the Retail Grocers' association has been called for Wednesday to work out a plan of cooperation between the public and retail dealers to strike at speculators in eggs and later to attack speculation in other foodstuffs.

Reports from other cities indicate the movement is already widespread. In Boston the Typographical Union has dopted resolutions urging its members to refuse to buy Thanksgiving turkeys at any price and to use as little butter and eggs as possible.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Thirty million eggs were discovered by the government investigators in cold storage today. The discovery is regarded as the most important made.

BOYCOTT STILL ON

BELLOWS BROTHERS RECEIVE WORD NOT TO SHIP CATTLE.

WAITING FOR DECISION

Cattle Shippers Advised Not to Crowd Markets Until Effect of Inoculation is Known.

Bellows Brothers received a telegram this morning from the secretary of the American Breeders' association of Chicago regarding the foot and mouth disease, which has caused a boycott of Missouri cattle. The text follows

"The reported case of foot and mouth disease in the Kansas City stock yards has been traced to the original point of shipment, western Nebraska, and the stock found there were similarly inflicted, but the trouble was not diagnosed as the foot and mouth disease. Kansas City is still held under suspicion. We recommend that you do not ship to Chicago until you receive a further wire from us."

Bellows Brothers, who were to ship several of their prize Shorthorns to the International show at Chicago, will not do so until they receive further word regarding the boycott.

There will be no lifting of the embargo at St. Joseph for several days, probably not until Thursday or Friday. By this time the effect of the inoculation of the two calves at Kansas City will be known.

The only effect of the embargo at present is on the stocker and feeder cattle. Stock yards commission men advise cattlemen not to ship this class of animals to St. Joseph, as there is no market for them, and say they had better hold their stuff until the situation clears up.

Kansas City and St. Joseph markets are operating under a restricted quarantine today, incoming shipments being allowed only in case of cattle for immediate slaughter.

Patrons of the rural routes are requested to call at that time for their mail, as the rural carriers will not make their trips that day.

HE WAS LONELY; SHE WAS, TOO; AND SO THEY WERE MARRIED

She was 66 years old. And he—well, contrary to the usual custom, he was rather diffident about entering his age on the marriage license book. He modestly marked "over" after his signature and, of course, it meant over 66. And they were married this afternoon—Mrs. Emily Craig of Pickering, a tall, slender, motherly looking woman, and W. R. Pierson of Enid, Okla., a large, portly, jolly man.

Mr. Pierson came all the way from Oklahoma to get his bride. He used to live in Pickering neighborhood twenty-five years ago, and among the friends of his family was Mrs. Craig.

Later he went to Enid, where his wife died and his children grew up, married and left him with a large house, a comfortable income and a lonely heart.

Mrs. Craig is the mother of seven children, three of whom, Mrs. Leona Leech, Mrs. Shell Garten and Frank Craig, live in Maryville. She, too, was lonely. She had her children to visit and her grandchildren to love, but there were times when she was alone in the little house in Pickering.

Mr. Pierson visited here several years ago. He saw Mrs. Craig, renewed the friendship of former years, and after he left for Enid they corresponded. Some weeks ago a letter came to Pickering asking Mrs. Craig to make up her mind whether or not she should like to be mistress of the lonely house in Enid.

Today they were happily married, and after a short wedding journey to Colorado to visit some of Mrs. Pierson's children, they will live in Enid.

REV. R. L. FINCH RESIGNS

The Rev. Robert L. Finch, formerly pastor of the First Christian church of this city has resigned as pastor of the Park and Prospect Christian church of Milwaukee, Wis., to go on the lecture platform for the Redpath-Horner system. He will assume his work on January 1 and will probably make his home in Kansas City.

Mr. Finch left Maryville a little over a year ago for Milwaukee, where he has had a very successful pastorate this year. He is a very able talker, and his many friends here predict a bright future for him as a lecturer.

MAKES CHEAP CAMPAIGN

Dr. Rowlett Expended Nothing in Race for Coroner—Other Candidates' Expenses.

Dr. H. S. Rowlett, coroner-elect, filed his campaign account today. He expended nothing in this campaign. This is the first candidate to file such a statement.

Charles Hyslop, according to his statement, spent $141.10, being $5 for filing fee, $75 to Republican county committee, $31 for stationery and postage, $6 for cigars, and $24.10 for advertising.

M. F. Farnan spent $37.25 in his campaign for re-election as county judge from the south district. He gave the Democratic county committee $25, cigars were $6.25, filing fee $5 and advertising $1.

TURKEYS NOT PLENTIFUL

Disease and Unfavorable Weather Result in Decrease of Usual Home Supply.

Home turkeys are not very plentiful this season, according to the poultry dealers in Maryville. Disease and unfavorable weather (for turkeys) have resulted in a great decrease in the usual supply. The dealers however, feel that they will have plenty of Thanksgiving birds to supply the demand of the home consumers, which will naturally not be so large on account of the high prices.

One poultry house had a fine bunch of dressed turkeys all ready to send to Maryville homes. The smallest of these, four and one-half pounds was $1.35, and the largest, 27 pounds, was priced at $7.10.

"From the moment you buy a turkey," said one of the dealers today, "it begins to owe you money. Turkeys pine away when placed in close confinement. They will lose as much as a pound a day, and at the rate of 30 cents a pound you know how much that means. For this reason we are not taking any more turkeys than we are positive we can sell. Turkeys lost about 2 per cent of their weight by being dressed."

They know that the merchants are offering a first class line of goods, bought especially in anticipation of the increased holiday trade made possible by the fare refund. They are reading the ads that appear daily in The Democrat-Forum, in which the merchant tells what he has to show in the way of unusual offerings for holiday time, and as a result they are saving all of their energy and all of their money for the big week when Maryville will be host to the largest crowd of shoppers, new and old, that the merchants have seen in many a day.

Here is something that will make you smile—the fare refund. Here is something that will make you laugh—the ease with which the fare refund is got. KANSAS CITY STOCK LETTER.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 27.—Last week's trade in killing cattle was fairly satisfactory, but stockers and feeders lost 15 to 40 cents. Receipts today dropped to 9,000 head, probably less than half what the run would have been except for the embargo on shipments out, put on pending outcome of investigation of suspected case of foot and mouth disease in shipment of cattle received here from Nebraska last Wednesday. Killing grades sold strong to 15c higher today. Hogs sold about steady, sheep and lambs steady.

Killing cattle—Buyers took everything solid, starting at the Exchange building and working in all directions into the cattle yards. Steers sold from $6.50 to $11.35, cows $5.50 to $7.50, canners $4.60 to $5.20, several train load lots of canner cows offered. Packers seem to need large amounts of beef, and they have been short of canner material here for several weeks. A single packer brought in 55 car loads of canner cows from Chicago in the last three days to be killed here. Shippers with cattle nearby seeking inside information today were told to have them here tomorrow or Wednesday, prospects favoring a good market for killing cattle those days.

Stockers and feeders—Cattle that arrived here from western Nebraska last Wednesday showed symptoms of a disease resembling foot and mouth in some ways, and shipments out of Kansas City were stopped Saturday, till it is determined that the disease is not foot and mouth, probably Wednesday.

Hogs—Receipts were 10,000 head, market strong at the opening, top $9.95, late sales weak, bulk $9.40 to $9.85. The market shows intermittent strength, and all indications point to higher prices. Receipts are beginning to fall off, and with the immense existing demand for meats and pork product, stronger competition is sure to develop, which means higher prices. Besides hog prices are inadequate, either compared with beef or lamb, or as based on prices listed in board of trade reports. Quality is improving, weights were 9 pounds heavier last week than two weeks ago.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts were 2,500 head, market about steady with the close of last week, lambs 55 cents above a week ago, the best lots at $12 and $12,05. Fat ewes sell up to $7.75, fair to good ones $6.75 to $7.50, wethers $7.75 to $8.50, yearlings worth up to $9.75. Alfalfa grazed lambs from eastern Colorado and fed lambs from local territory make up bulk of the supply. Pea fed Colorados will start week after next.

J. C. Lanning and son, Leslie, of Hopkins were in Maryville on business yesterday.

Miss Belvia Pierson of Beloit, Kan., is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Alva Hardisty, west of Maryville.

LAST GAME AT KIRKSVILLE

Bear Cats Leave Tomorrow to Meet Strongest Team in Northwest Missouri Conference.

The Maryville Normal football team will leave tomorrow for Kirksville, where they will play the Normal team on Thanksgiving day. Kirksville is destined to win the football championship of the 1916 season, and the game Thursday with the Bear Cats will be an easy one.

The standing of the teams in the conference follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Pr.ct.
Kirksville	5	0	.916
William Jewell	5	0	.833
Central college	2	2	.500
Missouri Wesleyan	2	2	.500
Springfield Normals	1	1	.500
Westminster college	2	3	.415
Tarkio college	1	2	.375
Drury college	1	2	.333
Missouri Valley	0	2	.000
Maryville Normals	0	4	.000

The Bear Cats have a very weak team and have been defeated easily by every conference eleven which has opposed it. This is the first season of football for the locals, and while battling gamely, the team has been outclassed by its more experienced opponents.
